

Georgia has a problem. She meets Alton at the bar where she works, and he takes interest in her. Georgia is passionate about the environment, but he is an heir to an oil empire. Georgia is determined not let anything tempt her into forming a relationship with Alton. Not the fact that he is charming. Not the fact that he is smart. Not the fact that he is richer than her wildest dreams. Not the fact that she already has a boyfriend. Not the fact that her body turns into a quivering mess whenever she is around him... Alton must change his ways before Georgia will allow herself to be with him. Can he? Can Georgia continue to restrain herself?
