

This is a New Adult/Contemporary Romance intended for 17+. Contains mature subject matter and sexual situations. Jason Kincaid is young, hot and successful. An All-Star outfielder for the Seattle Mariners, he finally had everything he ever wanted, including a second chance with his high school sweetheart, Megan Williams. But their hopes for a "happily-ever-after"™ are dashed by tragedy. A horrific car accident wipes out most of Jason's memories. Unable to recall anything from the last fifteen years of his life, Jason is suddenly adrift, his once charmed life now in ruins. Megan finds herself in the untenable position of having to deal with the fact that the man she's helping to rebuild his life may look, and even act, like her beloved fiancé, but in reality, isn't any longer. Trying to protect herself, as well as Jason, Megan fights the attraction between them...to no avail. As their potent connection inevitably draws them closer, Megan wonders, With the memories of their relationship gone, can love endure?
