

This title has been previously published and has been re-edited for your enjoyment. Living for years amidst a whirlwind of fear and danger, Julia Farris finally snaps free from the bonds that kept her in Arizona. But when she arrives in her hometown of Edinboro, Pennsylvania, she realizes sheâ€™s jumped out of the frying pan and into the fire. With the death of his parents, Mark Webb went to part time at the local police department to run his parentsâ€™ bed and breakfast, a job heâ€™s begun to think very lonely until his old high school flame shows up. As Julia tries to seize control of her life, she finds herself intrigued with the possibilities presented by Markâ€™s presence. But getting closer to Mark might spell disaster. Whatâ€™s a girl to do when one ex might be dead and the other wears a badge?
